

Family winter in the Saas Valley

Kids Days

During the high season we offer a varied children's programme on Friday afternoons. There are activities such as cinema afternoons and craft parties.

Kians Adventureland:

Next to the nursery slope on Furggstalden above Saas-Almagell, there's an exciting snow paradise for children at Kians Abenteuerland. Little ones can ski in a sunny location, surrounded by dragons, penguins, lions and other wildlife friends. There are also other exciting activities such as snow tubing, skidoo driving, a children's carousel, an igloo cinema and an Indian tipi.

Hohsi-Land:

Sunny slopes attract snow sports enthusiasts to take the cable car up to Kreuzboden above Saas-Grund. For little ones, there is also a ski pass to get to know Hohsi-Land. On your own private slope area, you can have fun learning to ski or snowboard, with a variety of activities in the Pipo-Club and Snowland, a magic carpet and a simple race course.

Hohsaas fun slope

The winter paradise of Hohsaas also offers a special highlight for all snow sports enthusiasts who are looking for a change from the usual fun on the slopes. The Hohsaas fun slope offers winter fun for the whole family with its waves, steep turns and other creative obstacles.

Ice sports

Ice sports are highly regarded in the Saas Valley and celebrated in every community. Take to the ice in Saas-Almagell, Saas-Balen, Saas-Grund and Saas-Fee and try out ice sports, with some purposeful (or accidental!) pirouettes on the ice with the family. Activities on offer range from ice-skating to curling. Ice sports in the Saas Valley are fun for all ages.

(Night) tobogganing:

In Saas-Grund there is an 11 kilometre toboggan run from Kreuzboden; in Saas-Fee, 6 km from Hannig or in Saas-Almagell, 3 km from Furggstalden); tobogganing in the Saas Valley is so much fun, that you want to keep going day and night. Just rent a headtorch with your toboggan and slide down the mountain into the valley at night or by the light of the moon. An unforgettable experience for the whole family!

Handicrafts for kids:

The Sun Flower boutique in Saas-Grund doesn't just have original gift ideas. Children over the age of six can come and express their creativity. Under the guidance of Erika Zurbriggen, little ones can make flowerpots, figures or decorate a stone from a walk in the Saas Valley with napkin decoupage.

Kid's disco:

Oh, to be a kid again – especially in Saas-Fee and Saas-Almagell. Fun at ski school in the morning and dancing and games at the kid's disco in the afternoon. And by popular demand – Snowli, the snow hare with long ears and colourful ski suit, who spreads his enjoyment all around, as young guests to the Saas Valley venture out onto the snow on skis for the first time.
